Who We Are

The Indian National Bar Association (INBA) is India's largest voluntary not-for-profit bar association with over 10,000 registered members, 25 specialized sections, 15 international chapters, and 10 regional forums across India.

Under the leadership of Founder & Secretary General Mr. Kaviraj Singh and with the patronage of eminent personalities including Dr. Subhash Kashyap, Late Shri Ram Jethmalani, and Smt. Meenakshi Lekhi, INBA works to represent the Indian legal community, reform laws for ease of doing business, and ensure speedy and effective justice.

INBA actively promotes the interests of the legal profession, expands professional networks, and acts as the collective voice of lawyers, and organizes national and international events. It has conducted landmark initiatives including:

- Nationwide survey on sexual harassment at the workplace (“Garima” Vol. 1), widely covered by leading media
- Handbook on White Collar Crimes, launched at its 9th Annual International Conference (2019) by Justice Andrew Bell, President, Court of Appeal, NSW, Australia
- Authoring the bestselling book “LAW & HER” by Mr. Kaviraj Singh
- Submitting reports to the Government of India on making India an international arbitration hub and improving the criminal justice delivery system (projects sponsored by Ministry of Commerce & Industry and Department of Justice respectively)

With over 200 legal events and awareness programs organized since inception, INBA remains committed to elevating the Indian legal industry on the global stage.

About Phenomenal She

Empowering Women, Enriching Lives

INBA is celebrating women empowerment in March, 2026, wherein we feature phenomenal women who have done commendable work in their field. We would like to seek your nomination for the same.

On the special event of victory of the women's right, INBA propose to publish the 8th Edition of its Coffee Table Book, 'The Phenomenal SHE'.

This project was started in 2018 by Ms. Vinakshi Kadan Singh, Senior Advisor INBA & Advocate, Supreme Court of India with the motive and intention to recognize the hard work of Women in various fields.

On 28th March 2026, INBA will have the privilege to launch 8th Edition of 'THE PHENOMENAL SHE' which will acknowledge the distinct personality of women, making the mark for themselves and encouraging others to follow. Former President of India, Hon'ble Sh. Ram Nath Kovind Ji blessed INBA and the book on its 3rd Edition of book on March 7, 2020, through his message.

■ Our Vision

To create a world where women are celebrated for their achievements, empowered to reach their full potential, and inspired to make a positive impact in their communities.

■ Our Mission

The Indian National Bar Association (INBA) is dedicated to acknowledging and honoring the contributions of exceptional women who have made a significant impact in their respective fields. Through our "Phenomenal She" book launch, we aim to recognize and celebrate the achievements of remarkable women, providing a platform for them to share their stories, inspire others, and foster a community of empowered women who can drive positive change.
